THE THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

In calling us to return to the Lord with all our heart, our readings put before us in the coming weeks three personal encounters with Jesus. In each one, Jesus reveals who he is and the impact he continues to have on the lives of those who open their hearts to him. Today we reflect on Jesus as the One who satisfies our thirst for God. He is the living water God has sent, just as God provided water for Israel in the desert by having Moses strike a rock. In the encounter with the Samaritan woman at the well, Jesus confronts a hardened heart, and by his loving care and concern for her, leads her to drink from the well of salvation. We see her gradual transformation from a person suspicious of a stranger to one who brings her fellow villagers to him, resulting in their recognition of Jesus as “truly the savior of the world” (John 4:42). Paul reminds us today that the love of God has been poured into our hearts through the gift of the Holy Spirit at the waters of Baptism.

How do you bring others to Jesus by witnessing to your faith in Him?

This Friday and all Fridays of Lent.....
STATIONS OF THE CROSS
 are prayed.....7:00pm

We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you because by your Holy Cross you have redeemed the world.

Listen to Jesus

Paul reminds us that faith involves accepting and responding to God’s gifts. Today we are told of God’s gift of Baptism. Water quenches our thirst or cleanses us. Water makes us think of the gift of Baptism which has been referred to in the past as the door of the Church. Through the waters of Baptism we can be united with God and have hope for eternal life. The waters of Baptism can quench our thirst and bring us peace with God. God wants to save all people through Jesus. Listen to Jesus; “If today you hear His voice, harden not your hearts.” (Responsorial Psalm).

Community Notes

⇒ Centering Prayer Workshop Our Lady of Sorrows, 920 Mamaroneck Ave, White Plains, Sat, Mar 25th, 9:45am to 1:00pm at the Church Community Room. Centering prayer is a form of meditation that prepares us to experience God's presence within. It fosters a personal relationship with the living God and moves us into communion with the Divine. It is an ancient, contemplative prayer that has been updated to facilitate its use in the hectic-paced lifestyle of our present day. Its fruits transform our lives and we are able to live calmly and with peace. During this workshop the simple steps of Centering Prayer will be taught along with time to experience two sessions of meditation. For more information or to register, call Pauline, 761-2552. Registration is also welcomed at the door.

Let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure Water. Hebrews 10:22
