SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Thursday, May 25th....Holy Day of Obligation

Forty days after His Resurrection, Our Lord ascended into Heaven from the Mount of Olives, and now sits at the right hand of God the Father. Before ascending, Christ raised His Hands and blessed His Apostles, enjoining them to preach the Gospel to all nations, and promising to be with them all days, until the end of the world. Christ made His ascent from the Mount of Olives, where He began His Passion, to show us that the road to Heaven must be through suffering.

Masses will be celebrated on Wednesday, May 24th at 7:00pm and on Thursday, May 25th at 6:30am, 8:30am, 12:15pm and 7:00pm.

The Ascension is a very consoling feast. It may not seem that way, if you only think of it as Jesus leaving the Apostles to carry on by themselves. Furthermore, Matthew even says that when they first saw the Risen Lord, "they worshipped, but [some] doubted," which indicates some were struggling to believe (Matthew 28:17). But then Jesus speaks words that have encouraged believers from then until now, first sending them (and now us) out to make disciples of all nations by baptizing others into the life of the Trinity, and teaching them what Jesus taught. His final words in the Gospel have encouraged the Church through the centuries and continue to motivate and strengthen all who take them to heart: "Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age" (28:20). Our faith also tells us that Jesus is both with us and with the Father, interceding for us, praying for us continuing to send the Holy Spirit, the "Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of [God]," deepening our hope in the glory yet to come, and strengthening the bonds that unite us as His Body, the Church (Ephesians 1:17).

How does this feast encourage you in your life?

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

769-0030 X 123

hrreligioused@live.com

"Keep My Commandments"

"Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me." Jesus wanted the disciples to love as He does and He wants us to do the same. Our Advocate is the Holy Spirit. We need the power of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Truth, so we may be witnesses of our faith not only by words but by our actions.

Religious Education Forms 2017- 2018

The class schedule posted on the back of the form indicates Thursday afternoon 4:30 – 6:00 p.m. for grades 1-8. It should indicate grades 1 through 7.

The 7th and 8th Grade classes for the Wednesday session (4:30 -6:00) are filled.

The Wednesday evening sessions for grades 7 & 8 are still available and the 7th grade session on Thursday is available.

Reminders: Existing families in the Religious Education Program should register their child/children by May 31 to avoid paying a late charge of $40.00 after May 31. Families who will be registering a first grader or a newcomer to our Religious Education program need to include a copy of the child's Baptismal certificate. Registration forms can be obtained in the Religious Education office, Rectory office or in the vestibule of the Church.

One Volunteer Catechist is still needed for the 2017-2018 Religious Education school year.

Catholics are called to build our faith. We need one practicing Catholic who has received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation) to volunteer to be a Catechist to pass his or her faith on to our parish children. Please volunteer now for the 2017-2018 Religious Education school year (September – May) for grade 6 on Wednesdays from 4:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Please call the Religious Education office at 769-0030 x 123 if you are available. Details to be discussed.

MILITARY COMMEMORATIVE MASS

Our Parish is planning our Commemorative Mass for our Armed Forces on Sunday, June 4 at the 9:30 a.m. Mass. This special Mass is to honor all military people from our parish; those presently serving in the Armed Forces as well as those deceased members of the military. If you would like the name of a deceased parish member mentioned at this Mass who served in the military, please submit their name to the Rectory before May 30, 2017. If you have submitted your loved one's name and have heard it announced in previous years, there is no need to submit their name again. If you have a family member currently serving in the military and would like to add their picture to our bulletin board in the vestibule, please send a photo (military photo if possible) along with their name, rank and branch of service to Holy Rosary Church c/o Military Bulletin Board. This can be put in the collection basket or brought to the Rectory.

Vacation Bible School

Holy Rosary is once again participating in Pleasantville's Ecumenical Vacation Bible School. Please join us for a week of Bible stories, great music, crafts and games with friends from other churches. August 7-11, 9 am-12pm in Pleasantville. Vacation Bible School is for children entering Kindergarten-8th grade; adult and high school volunteers are also needed (nursery and preK available for children of volunteers). For more details, questions and/or registration information check our website <http://www.holyrosaryhawthorne.org/vacation-bible-school> or contact your Holy Rosary Church representative, Colleen Rivello (colleenrivello@gmail.com, 914-329-1044).

Youth Group News

Our meetings for this school year have ended but we have two more collection/service projects before the summer. First, this weekend through June 25th we will be collecting broken and/or unwanted crayons. There will be a collection box in the back of the church. The crayons will be melted and made into new crayons which will be donated to children's hospitals. Second, during the Pancake Breakfast on June 4th we will be collecting Peanut Butter for the Ossining Food Pantry and gently used or new Backpacks and Men's Jeans for the Midnight Run. This will be our last collection until the Fall, please be generous! Go to the "Youth Ministries" section of the Holy Rosary website to learn more about the about these initiatives and watch out for the Youth Group's Year-End Wrap-Up coming soon!
