WEDDING BANNES

The proposal to find a medium time between 6:30am and 8:30am weekday Mass was floated in the Parish. That medium time would be 7:15am. A recent survey, asking if this proposal would serve the Parish well, did not find a decisive mandate for change.

While a few people who were 6:30am Mass goers on the one hand would come to a 7:15am Mass, the majority of the 8:30am Mass goers on the other hand did not find a 7:15am Mass convenient.

Therefore, a change from 8:30am would cause too much of a split to make a 7:15am Mass work.

Thank you to all who participated in the survey. The weekday Mass schedule will remain at 8:30am.

Thank you for your generous support of last week's Catholic Home Mission Appeal. Your contributions will help strengthen the Church at home and ensure that the Gospel is spread across the United States. If you missed the Appeal, it's not too late to give. Just visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections and click on the "How To Give" link on the left.

It's a call for new lectors. Reader/Lectors are needed for the 9:30am and 11:30am Masses. Training will be provided. Please contact Patricia Barresi at pbarresi@wlsmail.org

O Lord, Your wisdom shines on all who love her and upon all who seek the treasure of her laws. She stands at the doors of our hearts waiting for us to seek her out, anticipating our every desire to draw closer to you. More splendid than the sun, outshining all the stars, she is a breath of Your power, the spotless mirror Your light. Be generous, O Lord, and fill us with the favor of Your wisdom. Let no partiality or hypocrisy spoil her within us, but like wisdom itself make us pure and peaceable, kind and considerate. Let your mercy be the seed we sow, and your peace the fruit of all we teach. We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord. Amen.

Reverend Austin Fleming
