SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The command "Behold" brings us back into Ordinary Time. "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world," John the Baptist testifies on sighting Jesus (John 1:29). John is usually presented as the herald of the Good News, but here he is the witness. A herald simply announces the news he is given: Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. But a witness is personally engaged. Here John testifies that Jesus is the Lamb of God who will be led to slaughter, sacrificed for the sin of the world. John also testifies that Jesus "ranks ahead of me," Jesus is "the reason why I came baptizing," and the one on whom the Spirit came down (John 1:30, 31). John's Gospel portrays Jesus as being on trial before the worldly powers of evil, represented especially by Pilate, and John is the first witness to speak in his favor. Isaiah and Paul also witness to Jesus today. The Church hears Isaiah's second "Song of the Suffering Servant" as witnessing to Jesus. Paul addresses the Corinthians as "you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus" (1 Corinthians 1:2). We too are called to witness, to speak the truth about Jesus as our light.

Do you accept this vocation? How will you live it out?

Listening and Responding

We are called to be holy. We must live our calling, to live by example and service to God's people who are in need of our help. We must know God and pray often so we too can say "Here am I, Lord, I come to do your Will." (Responsorial Psalm). Never forget that God is the author of all human life. We must be willing to let God show His love for us by how we respond to His love.

Do you have a Catechism at home?

Every home should have a copy of the Catechism of the Catholic Church so parents and children can talk about the faith from a reliable source. Saint John Paul II told us back in October 1995 while visiting St. Patrick's Cathedral "There are two immediate things Catholic families can do to strengthen home life. The first; pray (the Rosary). The second is to use the Catechism of the Catholic Church to learn about the faith and to answer questions that come up, especially the moral questions which confront everyone daily.

Family/Children's Mass

Sunday, January 29, 2017 – 9:30 a.m.

Light refreshments will be served after this Mass in the school's Community Room.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Dear Fr Fraser,
Knowing the deep-rooted generosity of your parishioners and their concern for impoverished people, I introduce to you Neduora & Shepherds Inc. a 501(c) (3) organization incorporated in New York and co-founded by me, Fr Peter Claver Ugo, hospital chaplain and our parish assistant. Neduora means "the one who cares for all" and Our mission is to source for funds and to finance the digging of wells in order to bring clean water to impoverished Nigerian villages and to make it available free of charge to people of any tribe or faith. N&S Inc. partners with local Christian churches in a village, and together, they approach the village elders to seek permission to drill a borehole and discuss where it should be located. In the course of eight years, we have raised money with which we have completed four manually drilled wells, thanks to generous benefactors and support of Bishop Dominick Lagonegro and some priests who allowed our appeal in their parishes. The appeals for clean water have continued to pour in since we completed our first four wells. And as a result of high number of request for clean water wells N&S Inc. embarked on fundraising to raise fund to buy a drilling rig that could drill deeper to clean water and drill on consolidated soil formation as well. Thanks to our supporters, we have bought a drilling rig sourced in Nigeria at the cost of $35,000 and left with no money at the moment to train our drilling crew and reach out to those villages we have promised to drill wells. ARE YOU READY TO MAKE A DIRECT DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF THOSE WHO HAVE SO LITTLE? PLEASE HELP FR. PETER CLAVER'S NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION RAISE MONEY TO DIG WELLS IN POOR AFRICAN VILLAGES Special donations are also welcomed and you can make a donation on the internet by visiting www.neduora.org and there see our drilling rig and the wells we have done or mail checks to Neduora & Shepherds Inc. P. O. Box 99 Cornwall NY 12518. If you are interested please join our Board of Directors who helps raise funds for the organization. Our Tax ID 32-0276274.

May you be richly blessed as you give a cup of clean water to the thirsty!
