SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Paul's question today provides the foundation on which the other readings can stand: "Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?" (1 Corinthians 3:16). Paul is writing to the community at Corinth, one characterized by factions, bickering, jealousies, even arguing about whose "spiritual parentage" is greatest. And Paul asks, "Don't you know who you are? Don't you know to whom you belong?" By their baptism into the saving mystery of Christ's Death and Resurrection, Paul argues, the Spirit has been given and dwells in them. God has taken up residence in them, individually and communally. We too have to accept and live out of this truth, so we can take in the rest of today's scriptures, starting with "Be holy, for I, the Lord, your God, am holy" and "You shall not bear hatred for your brother or sister in your heart" (Leviticus 19:2, 17). We then move on to the seemingly impossible teaching of Jesus not even to resist one who is evil, but to love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us. How is this possible? Go back to Paul's question: "Do you not know?"

Do you know this? Do you believe it?

Month of the Holy Name of Jesus

Dear Pastors:

Fasting and abstinence from meat on Fridays are important Lenten obligations for every Catholic bound by age and health. As pastors/administrators, we need to strongly encourage our people to follow these directives.

This year, the Solemnity of Saint Patrick, our patron, falls on a Friday, and I have decided to dispense our people from abstaining from meat. Please notify your parishioners.

With renewed gratitude and prayerful best wishes, I am,

Fraternally in Christ,
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

hrreligioused@live.com

BE HOLY

Be Willing to Try

To be holy we must conform how we live our lives to God, who is holy. We are being challenged to be people of faith. We are reminded that we are "temples of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in us." We must acknowledge this by the lives we live. We must act by God's standards.

"You have to be holy in your position as you are, and I have to be holy in the position that God has put me. So it is nothing extraordinary to be holy. Holiness is not the luxury of the few. Holiness is a simple duty for you and for me. We have been created for that."

-Saint Mother Teresa

We still need volunteer Catechists for our Religious Education Program for the Religious Education School year September 2017 through May 2018 (weekly).

Catechists must be practicing Catholics who attend Mass weekly and on holy days and have received the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation). The Archdiocese requires a background check and that you view the Safer Spaces video training in accordance with their policy for the Protection of God's Children. Please call 769-0030 ext 123/124 or email hrreligioused@live.com if you can be of assistance in this important ministry. Thank you.
