Good Things Come To Those Who Wait!

I am happy to share with you the good news of my next assignment. Effective July 1, 2017, I will be serving at St. Malachy's Church—The Actors Chapel in Manhattan. Cardinal Dolan has asked me to assist the Pastor there as his Temporary Administrator. There are several good priests in residence there and the community has a great outreach to the elderly and the poor who live in that area of the city.

Still no word on a successor for Holy Rosary, but I believe we will know something soon. Let's continue to pray for a smooth transition for all of us.

In Christ,
Fr. John Fraser

PENTECOST SUNDAY The Birthday of the Church

On the tenth day after His ascending into Heaven, Christ sent down the Holy Spirit on the Apostles. The signs accompanying His descent were symbolic of His action. The rush of wind represented the strengthening of the will; the fire represented the illuminations of the understanding; and the tongues represented the gift of tongues to the Apostles and the teaching of the Gospel to all nations.

Pentecost, which is celebrated fifty days after Easter, is the day the Church began its life and we celebrate it with joy and thanksgiving.

WEEKDAY MASS SCHEDULE

Beginning Monday, July 3rd, there will be only one weekday Mass celebrated Monday thru Friday at 8:30am.

Live as Catholics –Build Up God's Kingdom

Jesus founded a Church for all people everywhere. The word Catholic means universal. Jesus wants us to be His witnesses and continue His work. We thank God for calling us into His Church which is one, holy and apostolic. God wants us to use the gifts He gave us to restore God's Kingdom in a world that seems to have forgotten God's Will.

Let us pray: "Lord send out Your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." (Responsorial Psalm)
