UPDATE

As of the printing date you may like to know the number of participation in our Plaza Project. So far, approximately 60 people have purchased memorial pavers and 40 people have purchased plaques. We also have received five (5) extraordinary donations from parishioners. The construction company has also provided an extraordinary amount of volunteer time. Special gratitude goes to the Parish Buildings & Grounds Committee, under the leadership of Tony Buonanno, who are making the project happen. Because the pavers are newly produced, it is advised that they are allowed to “cure” before they are engraved. This curing process dictates that the engraver wait about a month before he begins his work.

A NEW FEAST DAY

The Congregation for Divine Worship has implemented Pope Francis’ Decree that a memorial feast be placed in the Church calendar honoring a title the Blessed Mother has enjoyed since the crucifixion: Mary, Mother of the Church. The feast day will be observed on the Monday following Pentecost Sunday.

Just like your house. When you think you’re ahead, a forgotten bill arrives in the mail. You should know that the parish has been billed by the Town of Mount Pleasant for Sewer and Water for a total of $17,235.02.

THE PLAYGROUND. After being closed for insurance purposes, I am happy to announce that the playground is ready to re-open thanks to a parishioner who donated 100 yards of certified cushion materials which is a required safety measure by the industry and insurance company.
